

I am opposed any attempt to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. Any attempt to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on the Indiana law will open my phone up to interruptions and unwanted calls. The time I have been on Indiana's No Call List has been blissful. I no longer worry about who is calling and should I hurry to answer my phone.